

AUGUST 16TH, 2022 MLA UPDATE

The summers are a great time to connect with the community. As MLA, once the house is no longer sitting, my schedule is freed up to spend more time in the community, listening to organizations, celebrating the fruits of our labour with grand openings and groundbreakings, and meeting constituents. Between June 3 - August 11, I had 21 meetings with community organizations and with individual constituents, attended 17 local events, and heard many more local voices along the way.

I am also honoured to have been on the Select Standing Committee on Health focusing on the deaths in BC by a toxic drug supply. During these 23 meetings we heard multiple submissions and more than 800 British Columbians participated.

Working together both locally and province-wide is creating a better British Columbia for everyone! Wishing you a fantastic summer!
